AUCTION INFORMATION

Welcome to the 35th annual UUCU auction. In this catalog you'll find description of the many fabulous items being offered this year, thanks to the hard work of our volunteers and the generosity of our donors. There are many new, one of a kind, and never before offered, items to complement those which are back by popular demand. The auction is an exciting event in its own right, so plan to attend for a fun evening where you'll find:

- Free child care provided by reliable UU babysitters (registration for child care must be provided by November 6th)
- Dinner included in the registration fee
- Cash bar – including wine, beer, soft drinks and water.
- Free appetizers, coffee and tea.
- Fabulous Entertainment: Come early and enjoy music by the Chalice Messengers, 4 – 5 pm
- Wonderful volunteers who make the entire event as efficient, enjoyable, and trouble free as humanly possible.

We look forward to seeing you on November 8th! Don't forget your auction catalog!

There are two parts to the auction: a Vocal auction and a Silent auction. Vocal auction items are listed first in this catalog, followed by the Silent auction items. Silent auction items are grouped into these categories:

- Tangibles. The range of items available is so diverse as to defy description
- Services that draw upon the talents of our congregation
- Gift Certificates to local establishments. Provided by congregation members or by the businesses themselves.
- Food. Unique offerings by members of the congregation, many of which have a mighty reputation so be prepared for aggressive bidding.
- Sign-ups. Fixed price, all you have to do is put your name on the list. Some events are space limited so be sure to visit this part of the auction early. The Sign-up category includes movies and many family oriented, modest price, events.

It is highly recommended that you review this catalog and prepare your bidding strategy before auction night. The action during the Vocal auction will be fast and furious. To assist you in finding items and events that you will be interested in, quick reference guides have been prepared and appear before the detailed item descriptions.

SPONSORS: Some of the gift certificates and some services for the auction were donated by local establishments. We thank them and encourage you to show your thanks through your patronage.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SILENT AUCTION

“SILENT AUCTION MULTIPLES”. Some silent auction items can have more than one buyer. In an effort to satisfy the most bidders by selling as many of the offered items available, but at a consistent price for all buyers, we will handle the bidding in a fashion similar to that of the Vocal Auction. That is, multiples of the item will be available to the next highest bidders at the WINNING bid price. This requires additional action when you bid on these multiple buyer items. These actions are as follows:

- Quantity: If you wish to purchase more than one of the item, indicate the quantity of the item you would like to buy if you are a successful bidder. Put the quantity in parentheses next to your bid price. If you are awarded the item, your total cost will be the winning bid price multiplied by the quantity you indicated.
- Awarding Multiples of an Item: If you are not the highest/winning bid, but you are the next highest bidder inline and quantities of the item are still available, what happens? The next highest bidders will be awarded the item at the winning bid price automatically, IF their bid is within $5 of the top bid for an item that goes for $25 or more, OR if their bid is within $3 of the top bid for an item that goes for less than $25. If you, as a bidder, do NOT wish to purchase the item at top bid price, you must place a check under the “NO” column.
- A sample bid sheet will be on display at the auction for your reference.

If you have any questions about bidding on Silent Auction Items, please ask the Silent Auction Coordinators, Linda Strowbridge and Randy Raymond.

Special message to Silent Auction Donors: Before you leave, check to see if your item was sold. If it was not, TAKE IT WITH YOU. Do not leave unsold items.

Special message to Silent Auction Bidders: Post-it notes will be placed on the tables indicating the winning paddle number. DO NOT TAKE THE ITEM unless your paddle number is shown.

Non-reimbursement and Tax Deductibility

Non-reimbursement: Occasionally we get requests to reimburse a Donor for an expense associated with an auction item. It is the UUCB Auction policy NOT to reimburse such expenses. However, these expenses may be tax deductible.

Tax Deductibility: In addition to the above, Buyers are allowed to deduct the price of all items purchased, less the Fair Market Value (FMV). This estimate has no bearing for the donor or on the final auction price. An estimate of FMV of donated items and services will be provided by UUCB to donors with their end of year contributions statement.

AFTER THE AUCTION

- Buyers' statements will be available between services on the next two Sundays.. They will also be available through the UUCC office.
- Please pay the amount due as soon as possible. Lingering outstanding balances create extra work for your auction volunteers.
- Buyers should examine their statements immediately and bring any problems to the attention of the Auction Committee for adjustment. Auction Committee representatives will be in the lobby between services Nov 10 and Nov. 17 to accept payments, to answer questions about statements, and make any necessary adjustments. After that, you can contact them at auktion@uucolumbia.net.
- Donors will receive statements approximately 1-2 weeks after the auction by e-mail listing who purchased their items. This statement will include buyers' contact information. Donors: PLEASE do not discard this e-mail - it is your link to your buyers. It is the donor's responsibility to contact buyers in the event of changes in date, time, or other circumstance for an auction event.
- Occasionally, schedules change and a buyer cannot attend an event (s)he purchased. Buyers can transfer an event "seat" to any other person for free or for compensation. Buyer can also ask the event Donor or Rich Wachterman to arrange to fill the empty seat. Buyers and Donors: Please consider awarding the empty seat to a new UUCC member, at no charge, as a "UUCC Auction Welcome to UUCC" gift.
- Unsold seats to events can be purchased after the auction on a first come basis. A list of events with available seats will be posted on the auction website approximately two weeks after the auction with purchase instructions.

Item #101 Movie Nites at Casa Coltri: The 39 Steps Max. Buyers: 20
1935 (B&W), Alfred Hitchcock. Robert Donat, Madeline Carroll. Hitchcock's comic style propels this pre-WWII thriller: a hero, pursued by police, chases bad guys; a murder disrupts a music hall performance; and a beautiful lady finds herself handcuffed to the mysterious man on the moor. Each scene is a gem, a story complete unto itself, momentarily a part of the larger action, then left behind. Hitchcock's funniest film. Gather with friends old and new, enjoy the show on the spectacular Coltri Big Screen, and enjoy movie foods and soda. Themed (to the film) desserts, hot beverages and conversation follow the show. Bonus lap cats included. FOOD/DRINK: Light appetizers, snacks or desserts will be served. Vegetarian-friendly. Alcoholic beverages will not be served.

Walker's life ended tragically shortly after this film, from an adverse reaction to medication. Gather with friends old and new, enjoy the show on the spectacular Coltri Big Screen, and enjoy movie foods and soda. Themed (to the film) desserts, hot beverages and conversation follow the show. Item #103 Movie Nites at Casa Coltri: The Big Sleep Max. Buyers: 20
1946, Howard Hawks. Screenplay: William Faulkner & others; from a novel by Raymond Chandler. Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall define the term "screen chemistry" in a bewildering story of blackmail and murder. Parts of the plot may not make sense, but who cares? The dialog is brilliant, the minor characters well-drawn, and the interplay between Bogart and Bacall magical. Gather with friends old and new, enjoy the show on the spectacular Coltri Big Screen, and enjoy movie foods and soda. Themed (to the film) desserts, hot beverages and conversation follow the show. Bonus lap cats included (this info included at the cats' requests). FOOD/DRINK: Light appetizers, snacks or desserts will be served. Vegetarian-friendly. Alcoholic beverages will not be served.

1995, Bryan Singer. Oscars: Best Screenplay; Best Actor (Kevin Spacey). Polished, stylish, modern noir with quirky, edgy characters in profusion and a mystifying plot. Beginning with a gigantic explosion, it jumps backward to a set of apparently unrelated characters and events. Multiple perspectives, flashbacks, and tall tales keep the audience guessing as the multi-layered story is gradually revealed. Gather with friends old and new, enjoy the show on the spectacular Coltri Big Screen, and enjoy movie foods and soda. Themed (to the film) desserts, hot beverages and conversation follow the show. 1955 (B&W), French, subtitled. Julius Dassin, Best Director (Cannes). With French sensibilities the film is raw and edgy, evoking a sense of impending tragedy. A well-known "noir" director, Dassin was blacklisted in America, and relocated to France in 1953. Gather with friends old and new, enjoy the show on the spectacular Coltri Big Screen, and enjoy movie foods and soda. Themed (to the film) desserts, hot beverages and conversation follow the show.
